How to Download a Pattern

The most important item is that you must have an account created on our website and be logged into this account when placing your order. Without an account, we do not have a place to store your pattern(s).

After you complete your order, you can go to your account page and download your patterns

PC or Mac

With a PC or Mac, you can get the account page by clicking on your first name in the upper right corner or the My account link in the menu.
